SECTION ONE

About

The About section defines the foundation of Al Reef & Laurel — its vision, mission, values and brand voice. It sets out the thinking, purpose and emotional direction behind every experience the brand creates.

Welcome

If you’re reading this, you’re helping bring Al Reef & Laurel to life.

This guide exists to protect the clarity of our brand and ensure everything we create reflects our values: real materials, honest craft and quiet confidence.

We’re not interested in jargon or fluff. What matters is how people experience Al Reef & Laurel visually, verbally and in the hand. Our identity is built through consistency and care.

Inside, you’ll find practical guidelines to help you work with our brand. These aren’t hard rules for the sake of rules; they’re tools. Use them to stay aligned, make decisions and create work that feels distinctly ours.

Whether you’re designing a product page, packing a gift set or introducing Al Reef & Laurel to someone new, thank you for being a part of this.

Our Vision

To make the honest, traceable bath ritual the everyday standard in Gulf homes: a loofah grown in Egypt's Nile Delta and a bar of Levantine laurel soap, renewed every 60 days.

In the near term, Al Reef & Laurel launches in the UAE in early 2027 with a founding-member community, The Duo and a Ramadan gifting range, sold on our own store where renewal lives.

Over the next 5 years, the brand grows across the GCC: Saudi Arabia from 2027, luxury retail through Ounass, boutique hotels and spas in Dubai, Abu Dhabi and Riyadh, and selected beauty retail.

In the longer term, Al Reef & Laurel aims to take the Nile Delta loofah and the Levantine laurel ritual beyond the Gulf.

Brand Messaging

A short list of approved mottos and brand messaging: clear, versatile phrases that capture our voice and point of view.

1. Grown, not made.
2. The hammam, every morning.
3. When the tag fades, so should your loofah.
4. Know exactly where it grew.

Tone of Voice

1. Specific & Grounded

Numbers and places persuade. We write “sun-dried for 21 days in Damanhour”, never “ethically sourced from exotic lands”.

2. Precise & Human

Refined without feeling clinical. We teach the ritual and the reason behind it, with one light twist per piece.

3. Calm Confidence

No hype, no urgency tricks and no exclamation marks. The brand speaks with quiet confidence rather than loud persuasion.

4. Sensory & Material

We speak about fibre, water and steam, and how a bathroom feels on a weekday morning.

5. Beyond Wellness Language

We avoid generic terms like “detox”, “pamper” or “revolutionary exfoliation”. We say what it is, where it grew and what it does.

6. One Word of Arabic

English first, British spelling, numerals for numbers. Arabic appears as one meaningful word, never as a translation.

SECTION TWO

Brand Logo

The Al Reef & Laurel logo is simple but deliberate, designed to feel precise, timeless and grounded. This section outlines how to use it correctly and how not to.

Primary Logo

AL REEF

& LAUREL

The Al Reef & Laurel logo represents the brand as a whole. Use it across products, packaging, marketing and any official communication. It is a carefully crafted mark and should never be altered or redrawn.

AL REEF

& LAUREL

1" OR 120PX

LOGO MINIMUM SIZING

This version is intended for small sizes. The minimum width is 1" for print applications and 120px for digital applications.

Monogram

The Al Reef & Laurel monogram is a loofah cut in half: the outer skin, three seed chambers and the fibre walls between them, drawn by hand in one even line. It is the first thing you see when you slice a gourd from Field 7.

Rather than serving as an abbreviation of the primary logo, it is a standalone mark that captures the brand in its most distilled form. Use it on favicons, social avatars, cotton tags, wax seals and soap stamps, always from approved artwork.

.40" OR 30PX

MONOGRAM MINIMUM SIZING

This version is intended for extremely small sizes. The minimum height is .40" for print applications and 30px for digital applications.

Boxed Logo

The boxed logo is a denser version of the Al Reef & Laurel mark, placed within a solid container. The container can be square, circular or have rounded corners set to 5% of its width (6px corners at 120px wide).

Use this variation when clear space is limited, contrast is needed, or a bold, self-contained presence fits the context: cotton tags, soap bands and social tiles.

.75" OR 96PX

LOGO MINIMUM SIZING

This version is not intended for extremely small sizes. The minimum height is .75" for print applications and 96px for digital applications.

Service Marks

The primary logo and monogram have service mark variations, used to indicate trademark status where required.

These include both trademark (™) and registered trademark (®) versions, depending on the level of legal protection in each market.

When in doubt, use the version without a mark. The standard logo is appropriate for most day-to-day use.

The service mark and the logo scale independently, with priority given to keeping the mark legible at any size.

AL REEF™
& LAUREL

TRADEMARK VERSIONS

For markets where the trademark is filed but not yet registered, such as the UAE and Saudi Arabia during launch. This is the default mark.

Include the ™ only on the first or most prominent use of the logo in any given context.

AL REEF®
& LAUREL

REGISTERED TRADEMARK VERSIONS

Only in regions where the Al Reef & Laurel trademark is fully and officially registered. Do not use this mark in unregistered territories.

Include the ® only on the first or most prominent use of the logo in any given context.

Anatomy of the Logo

The Al Reef & Laurel logo is constructed with carefully balanced proportions, spacing and alignment to ensure clarity and consistency across every application.

“AL REEF” is set in Quattrocento capitals. “& LAUREL” sits beneath in tracked Inter at one quarter of the cap height, centred. Do not stretch, condense, rotate or redraw any part of the logo, and never set the name on one line.

Usage on the web

The Al Reef & Laurel logo is adapted for various digital touchpoints, each with its own format and constraints.

AL REEF & LAUREL FAVICON

Our favicon, a 32px × 32px icon displayed in the browser next to the URL, uses the boxed monogram.

SOCIAL MEDIA AVATARS

The layout of these avatars should not be altered. Approved secondary brand colours may be used for Ramadan, Eid and the harvest season.

DEVICE ICON

If our website is saved as a bookmark on a phone's home screen, this graphic will be displayed. Default size is 192px square.

SECTION THREE

Typography

The Al Reef & Laurel type system is designed to feel refined, balanced and legible across every touchpoint. This section outlines the logo, primary and secondary typefaces and their intended use.

Logo Typeface

Wordmark Typeface

The wordmark and display moments on packaging are set in Quattrocento, a classical serif with calm, generous capitals. It is free for commercial use.

Canela (commercial licence) is the optional upgrade for print and packaging. If licensed, it replaces Quattrocento in the wordmark only.

Website Typeface

Primary Typeface

The type system is built around a carefully selected pair of primary and secondary typefaces, designed to work together across digital and print. The primary typeface, Literata, carries the brand's refined and recognisable character.

Together, these typefaces create a balanced visual rhythm. Consistent use keeps hierarchy clear and the identity cohesive.

Font Pairing

Literata - Heading

A loofah grown in the Nile Delta, finished for the everyday shower.

Inter - Body Copy

Al Reef & Laurel pairs a loofah sun-dried for 21 days in Damanhour with a bar of Levantine laurel soap. Every loofah carries a cotton tag that fades by day 60, and a fresh one arrives as it does.

SECTION FOUR

Brand Colours

The Al Reef & Laurel colour palette is designed to feel grounded, timeless and refined: the warm linen of the hammam, the green of laurel and olive tile, and the clay and earth of the Nile Delta.

Primary Colour

Delta Linen

| | |
|---|---|
| Hex | #EEE4D8 |
| RGB | 238, 228, 216 |
| CMYK | 6, 8, 13, 0 |

A soft linen inspired by hammam marble, unbleached cotton and quiet luxury. Delta Linen brings warmth, calm and understated elegance to the palette, creating a refined foundation that feels both modern and enduring.

Secondary Colour

The secondary palette complements Delta Linen with a curated range of supporting tones that add depth, contrast and flexibility: the green of laurel leaves and olive tile, and the clay and earth of the Delta. Each tone works across digital, print, packaging and space.

Laurel Mist

| | |
|---|---|
| Hex | #77918D |
| RGB | 119, 145, 141 |
| CMYK | 57, 33, 42, 3 |

Deep Laurel

| | |
|---|---|
| Hex | #293329 |
| RGB | 41, 51, 41 |
| CMYK | 72, 56, 72, 63 |

Nile Clay

| | |
|---|---|
| Hex | #C15A27 |
| RGB | 193, 90, 39 |
| CMYK | 18, 76, 100, 6 |

Delta Earth

| | |
|---|---|
| Hex | #6A2E0C |
| RGB | 106, 46, 12 |
| CMYK | 35, 80, 100, 47 |

Colour Usage Proportions

Colour helps create structure, guide attention and set tone. To keep our compositions balanced, we follow a simple framework: 60 / 30 / 10.

60% Dominant: Delta Linen. This is the foundation. It holds the layout together and sets the mood: backgrounds and large containers.

30% Secondary: Laurel Mist and Deep Laurel. Contrast and support: frames, panels and type.

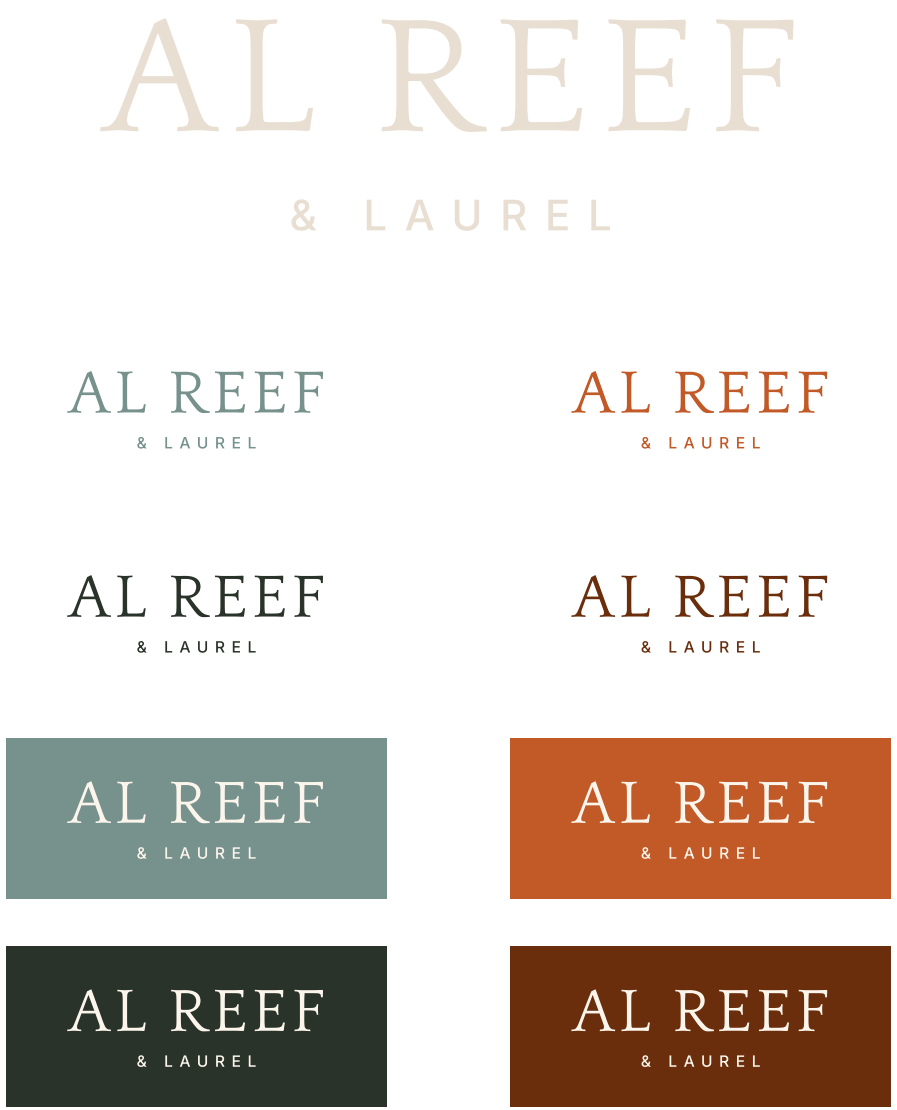

10% Highlight: Nile Clay and Delta Earth. Where the eye goes first: actions, seals and key moments.

This ratio isn't a rule; it's a guide. The goal is to use colour intentionally, with restraint and clarity.

Primary Logo in Brand Colours

The primary Al Reef & Laurel logo is designed to work seamlessly across the core brand palette, ensuring clarity, elegance and strong recognition in every application.

Monogram Logo in Brand Colours

The Al Reef & Laurel monogram is a compact symbolic mark crafted to adapt effortlessly across the brand colours, offering a refined and distinctive presence in minimal applications.

SECTION FIVE

Graphic Assets

The graphic assets combine the tile grid, lifestyle imagery and product mockups to present Al Reef & Laurel in a refined, immersive way, showing how the brand lives in real bathrooms, real hands and real materials.

The Tile Grid

Our box pattern borrows from the walls our products live on: hammam marble, mosaic and the long stacked tiles of a Gulf bathroom.

The square grid opens sections, lines packaging flaps and breaks website sections. The tall stack grid is for social tiles, gift tissue and shelf strips.

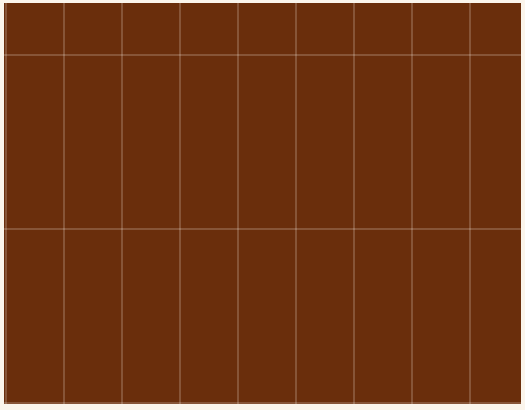

Use it on Nile Clay, Deep Laurel or Delta Earth only, with hairlines at 20% Delta Linen.

Mockups

These mockups show how the Al Reef & Laurel identity comes to life on the objects people hold: the fading cotton tag, the wax seal on a gift, the soap band and the kraft box. Final artwork is printed on unbleached stock, with no plastic and no lamination.

Imagery

Our imagery reflects the world of Al Reef & Laurel: warm, tiled bathrooms in clay, olive and deep green, lit by one warm source. The loofah is shown honestly, hanging, wet or in the hand, within a considered space. Hands and shoulders, never posed faces.

Brand Film

“Grown, not made.” A 30-second launch film for Instagram, TikTok and the website hero, cut to 15 and 6 seconds for paid social.

No voice-over: water, fibre and a single line of type at the end, shot in one warm bathroom and on Field 7.

0:00–0:04

Field 7 at first light. Gourds hang on the trellis.

0:04–0:09

Water runs. A hand takes the mitt from its hook.

0:09–0:15

Lather, then small circles. Steam rises.

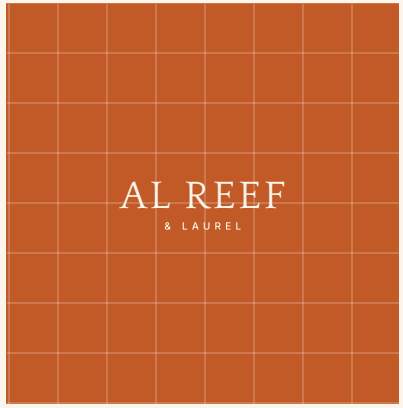

0:15–0:20

Hung to dry on the tile. The tag reads Day 01.

0:20–0:25

Time passes. The ink on the tag fades.

0:25–0:30

Grown, not made.
